Iâ€™ve been trying god knows how long
To piece my heart back together
Now here I am back in our home town
You never answered my letters

Is your Dad still working, and howâ€™s your Mom
We havenâ€™t talked since last December
I know itâ€™s been some time since Iâ€™ve been gone
But you said youâ€™d wait forever

I guess forever took too long
I guess I shouldnâ€™t have left you hanging on
I guess you couldnâ€™t wait, my leaving was wrong
I guess forever took too long

Was I the only one who thought this would last
If I was wrong then you can tell me
Cos I donâ€™t mean to be living in the past
I just canâ€™t believe you donâ€™t love me

How can you stand there and say the love has died
Cos you know I can still remember
When you turned from me with tears in your eyes
And swore youâ€™d love me forever

I guess forever took too long
I guess I shouldnâ€™t have left you hanging on
I guess you couldnâ€™t wait, my leaving was wrong
I guess forever took too long

I guess forever took too long
I guess I shouldnâ€™t have left you hanging on
I guess you couldnâ€™t wait, my leaving was wrong
I guess forever took too long
Oh, forever, forever took too long
Forever took too long
