There was a time when evereything was alright between the lines where loseing all the sunshine all that i know said everything goes gotta hold on to the things that we need the most cause thats you and me

The times we are a changeing were caught up in the craaaazys round the world is busy fighting well be out there kicking daisies

Gone are the days and now we gotta fight through give it away youll find happyness inside you i figured it out what its all about and noone is perfect we live in a mystery dont have to aggree if we hold the key to the truthe we have above in the life from above

there kicking daisies

Romeing in circles chaceing a shadow falling down and go asleep

(Bens gutiar solo)

The times we are a changeing were caught up in the

craaaazys round the world is busy fighting well be out
