So, three cheers for the birthday girl
Three cheers for the birthday girl

I don't like surprises,
Man, let me tell you why
'Cause the last time that I tried
It almost drove me insane
My flight be coming early,
But I was trying to hide it
'Cause I thought if I surprised her
I'd be making her day
But, but, wait a minute
She made plans and I ain't even in them,
Baby at a party, but wait, wait
She was hooked up with another nigger, damn
I can't believe this chick,
Now I wanna take back all my shit,
He didn't know, so I introduced myself
And I said that I got to make a toast real quick

So, three cheers for the birthday girl,
All in one night shorty changed my world
Now all of a sudden I'm single
And I don't think I mind it at all
So happy birthday, girl, girl, girl, girl

I'm already chilling
And it only took a minute
Now I've got these twins
And they wanna have a good time
We're laughing and we're drinking
As she stares, I'm disbelieving
I say, do you think us, baby
I'm gonna do mine
It's hard to believe
That you honestly think that
I could just let you leave
Scot free, without paying for me
But ain't your man over that bottle punch ball
You gotta guess so, what you're mad at me for?
Matter of fact, you should grab her a drink, bro
'Cause I'm a make this toast

Three cheers for the birthday girl,
All in one night shorty changed my world
Now Iâ€™m at this party trying to mingle
And I donâ€™t think she likes it at all
But have a happy birthday girl, girl, girl, girl
Have a happy birthday, girl, girl, girl, girl

Three cheers and three keys,
Thatâ€™s my whip and my spine,
Would you be there in the three ways
And show me your all time
You know me, no slowly,
She wild and she canâ€™t stop
Donâ€™t seem, but I pop,
Then pull up a new drop
You pull up, I deflect,
Play no games and no texts,
Just pull up, believe that,
For what they say I need that.
You was the dumbest to give up the truest
Swag and the money had her going stupid

Three cheers for the birthday girl,
All in one night shorty changed my world
Now Iâ€™m at this party trying to mingle
And I donâ€™t think she likes it at all
But have a happy birthday, girl, girl, girl, girl
Have a happy birthday, girl, girl, girl, girl, girl
