Circle - written by Kenny Mehler

What do you get when you put two and two Together forever which ever way you choose it I have a reason to believe that you can see the difference
Between which ever way you use it

So use what you want
Don't think about tomorrow
And refuse what you got
You'll be wishing that tomorrow was yesterday
Yesterday I found out...

So if I circle around
And find some new ground to stand on
Would you be the same...could you be the same
But if you like what you found
It's time to get down to my sound now...
Oh...said if it comes back around I know your gonna
do it again

So know It's easy for me to see that he is different than me
Whichever way you choose him
I have a reason to believe that you can see the difference between Whichever way you use him

So use what you got
Don't think about tomorrow
And refuse what you want
You'll be wishing that tomorrow was yesterday
Yesterday I found out...

So if I circle around
And find some new ground to stand on
And if you like what you found
It's time to get down to my sound now...
Oh...said if it comes back around I know your gonna
do it again

You know if it comes back around I know your gonna do it again

So use what you want
Don't think about tomorrow
And refuse what you got
You'll be wishing that tomorrow was yesterday
Yesterday I found out...

So if I circle around
And find some new ground to stand on
Would you be the same...could you be the same
And if you like what I found
It's time to get down to my sound now...
Oh...said if it comes back around I know your gonna
do it again
You know if it comes back around I know your gonna do
it again
Oh...said if it comes back around I know your gonna
do it again
