Disappear - written by Kenny Mehler

So lately I've been wondering how
My hands are always open
I'm trying to lift you up don't let me down
The days we spent
The nights when we went
Are all that's left that brings me back to you

Oh my god...
I swear in a blink of an eye, I'm gonna disappear
Please don't tell, Not a soul...when I am gone
Cry out my name...said I'll be there
I'll be there...I'll be there...I'll be there

When in doubt, when your lucks run out
When you have no where else to turn
Just call my name, You know I still feel the same
And I'll come running back to you

Oh my god...
I swear in a blink of an eye, I'm gonna disappear
Please don't tell, Not a soul...when I am gone
Cry out my name...said I'll be there
I'll be there...I'll be there...I'll be there

When darkness covers your eyes
When all you see is the light
You can look at me and you'll find
Darling please don't cry

Oh my god...
I swear in a blink of an eye, I'm gonna disappear
Please don't tell, Not a soul...when I am gone
Cry out my name...said I'll be there
I'll be there...I'll be there...I'll be there
Cause I'll be there
I'll be there...I'll be there...I'll be there
Cause I'll be there
