Rhythm and Rhyme - written by Kenny Mehler

Three days ago I saw a man, He had a limp with a bad suntan
Than she turned to me and she said won't you hop in the shower with me my friend I was outside said...I'm peeking in, back and forth, bang the middle and round again Should of knocked it, but I stopped whether you care or not,
You know it would probably be better if I see you later...come on

I would like to tell you a little story about a man who couldn't understand
I said wake up and don't get out of line
If you got the rhythm...Than I got the rhyme tonight

So tell me is it front to back Whether you like it that way you know I can stay on track
Kick it once maybe twice by the way roll the dice
Are you ready to lay it down and walk away
I was upside down inside out doing the back to right Oh...damn you know that feels so tight
In a bed better off with two friends, Aces high, deuces low
You should have bet me you'll never know...come on I would like to tell you a little story about a man who
couldn't understand
I said wake up and don't get out of line
If you got the rhythm...Than I got the rhyme tonight

If you got the rhythm and I got the rhyme
We'll break it down you know we'll be just fine
If you got the rhythm and I got the rhyme
We'll break it down you know we'll be just fine
You can run but you better not hide
I got the rhythm and you got the rhyme
You can run but you better not hide
Oh my god let's get it on tonight

So we're back in another time and another place
With the same familiar unforgotten face If you got it throw it down bump in the same similar sound
So hit the lights, that will be nice, than you have to know After all's been said and done ya know... never the less
He has to realize that she's got to go. Maybe a left even a right
With that limp, He shouldn't fight...
Just angry cause I'm gonna See you tonight... come on

I would like to tell you a little story about a man who
couldn't understand
I said wake up and don't get out of line
You got the rhythm... Than I got the rhyme tonight

If you got the rhythm and I got the rhyme
We'll break it down you know we'll be just fine
If you got the rhythm and I got the rhyme
We'll break it down you know we'll be just fine
You can run but you better not hide
I got the rhythm and you got the rhyme
You can run but you better not hide
Oh my god let's get it on tonight
Yeah I'm all right
Yeah I'm all right
Yeah I'm all right
Let's get it on tonight
