Sunflower Eyes

Words and Music by John Bassett

(verse)

She walks on water, so sublime, so knowing, so glowing, she's making waves, she knows her mind, she knows what it's like to be unkind

(bridge)

A lullabye, she leaves you wanting more, she's the only note, she makes the sweetest chords

(chorus)

Have I really lost, my place in your hall of fame, all I see sunflower eyes

Is there nothing more, left for me to say to you, all I see
sunflower eyes

(verse2)

I wonder, hope and prey within, for you now, to help me, to break out from this world within, I need for you to cleanse all my sins

(bridge)

A lullabye, she leaves you wanting more, she's the only
note, she makes the sweetest chords

(chorus)

Have I really lost, my place in your hall of fame, all I
see sunflower eyes

Is there nothing more, left for me to say to you, all I see
sunflower eyes
