Who are you now?
boredom unsound
you've thrown it away (your life) with no one to blame (yourself) you were once my friend.

move away, the smell of you reminds me of a food
that i hate
and it seems there's lots on your plate realize, you will meet abuse if you stay what have you found?

is this what you want?
you've been wrong so far how do you think you'll last?

hang around
have a laugh - at your face does it hurt
when i say - that you suck what a waste
my advice - useless now and i mean
what i say - from the heart
