I remember how it used to be,
And all the things you said to me
You always taught me right from wrong (wrong from right, right from wrong)
'Til you went on the killing spree,
And killed your family
Why is this the way things have to be?
Tell me!

Oh, Mr. Smiley, how could it be true,
The things they say that they knew?
I can't believe it!
What has happened to you?
I took my time while thinking it through,
Digging for facts, believing in you

Oh, Mr. Smiley, give me a clue why they said it was you
I can't accept it
Tell me it's not true,
Because you were once so good to me
Oh Mr. Smiley, tell me how it could be

You always had a smile on your face (so big)
I never thought you'd be a Criminal case
'Til I saw your face on my T.V.
Was it just for entertainment?
Because now you face solitary confinement (in jail)
Why is this the way things have to be?
Tell me!

Oh, Mr. Smiley, how could it be true,
The things they say that they knew?
I can't believe it!
What has happened to you?
I took my time while thinking it through,
Digging for facts, believing in you

Oh, Mr. Smiley, what has happened to you?
Oh, Mr. Smiley, what has happened to you?
Tell me it's not true!
