"Teenage Pacifier"

Your life has been a waste
Now I'm here to control your faith
What was stolen, I'll reclaim
And you know it, I'll do it

I'll make you all you'll have to follow me
I'm a charger in the lead
Finally my voice is coming through
I know what I do, and I do what I have to do

I'm a teenage pacifier

They were wrong, I was right
Sweet birdie fly
To the nest where the others hide
Little mother cry

I'll make you all you'll have to follow me
I'm a charger, I'm the lead
Finally my voice is coming through
I know what I do, and I do what I have to do

I'm a teenage pacifier
