To sail on a dream
on a crystal clear ocean, to ride on the crest of a wild raging storm
To work in the service of life and living, in search of the answers of questions unknown To be part of the movement and part of the growing, part of beginning to understand,

Aye Calypso the places you've been to,
the things that you've shown us,
the stories you tell Aye Calypso, I sing to your spirit, the men who have served you so long and so well Like the dolphin who guides you, you bring us beside you To light up the darkness and show us the way For though we are strangers in your silent world To live on the land we must learn from the sea To be true as the tide and free as a wind swell Joyful and loving in letting it be

Aye Calypso the places you've been to,
the things that you've shown us,
the stories you tell
Aye Calypso, I sing to your spirit,

Aye Calypso the places you've been to,
the things that you've shown us,
the stories you tell
Aye Calypso, I sing to your spirit,
