Are you not unaware
Of the signs your silence bears, out loudly?
So all these notes and lucky dares to fill my spaces,
lose my cares for speaking?
How do I get lost inside the center of my thoughts
When everybody's got a plot, for me?

How can I explain,
In structure words cannot contain?
There's no more {stockings?} in the frame, from me!

There's no architecture, architecture,
There's no architecture, to how I feel!
There's no architecture, (there's no architecture,)
(Ain't no architecture), architecture,
There's no, there's no architecture, to how i feel

There's smoke
And glares become
Dippin' nights,
Holding on to empty guns,
They're out hunting.

A tired love has found me!
Carry guard, the picture of a heart is free,
But on this {building?}

There's no architecture, architecture,
There's no architecture, to how I feel!
There's no architecture, (there's no architecture,)
(Ain't no architecture), architecture,
There's no, there's no architecture, to how i feel

There's no architecture,
There's no architecture,
There's no architecture, to how i feel, Ah!
Ohohohohohohohohohohoho,
There's no architecture, to how i feel. Feel!
