Complication's my claim to fame
And I can't believe there's another
Constantly just another
I can't avoid what I can't control
And I'm losin ground
Still I can't stand down
And I know, yeah I know, yeah

I know you stay true when my world is false
Everything around's breakin down to chaos
I always see you when my sight is lost
Everything around is making time a chaos

I know you stay true when my world is false
Everything around's breakin down to chaos
I always see you when my sight is lost
Everything around is making time a chaos

It's hard to trust anyone again
After all the letdowns I've been through Haunted by what I've been through
Best to try while I still can breathe
And I'm screamin out
Give me hope somehow
And I know, yeah I know, yeah

I know you stay true when my world is false
Everything around's breakin down to chaos
I always see you when my sight is lost
Everything around is making time a chaos

I know you stay true when my world is false
Everything around's breakin down to chaos
I always see you when my sight is lost
Everything around is breakin down

Chaos, chaos
I know you stay true, yeah
I know you stay, yeah, yeah, yeah

You stay true when my world is false
Everything around's breakin down to chaos

I know you stay

I know you stay true when my world is false
Everything around's breakin down to chaos
I know you stay

I know you stay true, everything around's breakin down
I know you stay true, everything around's breakin down

You stay true when my world is false
Everything around's breakin down to chaos
I always see you when my sight is lost
Everything around is making time a chaos

I know you stay true when my world is false
Everything around's breakin down to chaos
I always see you when my sight is lost
Everything around is making time a chaos
