Can you believe this world's got the nerve to insist
That it won't trade in for a better one?
Can you believe this world's yellin' out in the dark
It wants to be left alone?

Can you believe this world never woulda had the chance
Without us giving it blood?
Can you believe this world lacks the common courtesy
To thank us all for the love?

Set it on fire, set it on fire
Set it on fire, set it on fire
Set it on fire, set it on fire
Set it on fire

Can you believe this world's like a glassy eyed swiggler
Caught sipping another one?
Can you believe this world's like a tyrant taking over
Anything that it wants?

Can you believe this world's like a wounded model warrior
Whose commitment is gone?
Can you believe this world's like a vagrant in the gutter
Talkin' nothin' is wrong?

Set it on fire, set it on fire
Set it on fire, set it on fire
Set it on fire, set it on fire
Set it on fire

Can you believe this world's just a double dealin' joker
Gonna stick to his cards?
Can you believe this world's just a television blaring
A million devils at once?

Can you believe this world's just a chommer in the sky
With a lie in his soul?
Can you believe this world's just exactly as we built it
Running out of control?

Set it on fire, set it on fire
Set it on fire, set it on fire
Set it on fire, set it on fire
Set it on fire

Set it on fire
Set it on fire, set it on fire
