I was once a shadow, now I'm on my own went through every wall and I've got myself to show trials and tribunations seem to always track me down now I've been to a sunset, drives another town

Im an odd soul
yes an odd soul, walk inside rocks
cause thats the only way I know

I'm an odd soul
yes an odd soul, walk inside rocks

Watch for who you know, careful what you try everywhere I got I still got myself to fight and one day if my child ever wonders what is wrong
I know if I battle I'll win tell him daddy don't belong

Im an odd soul

yes an odd soul, walk inside rocks

Im an odd soul, ,just trying to find a place called home

(got an odd soul, is that all right I see it,ah ah ah ah ah ah ah,I see it ohhh ohhh,ahhhh ahhhh ahhhh lalalalalala lalalalalala lalalalalala
I see it)

Im an odd soul
yes an odd soul

I see it

Im an odd soul
yes an odd soul
