You're not far from what
You wanted to become when you were young
Those years have gone by
But were never lost

It's too late
We don't know why some dreams fall through
Today
These are the scars that remind you

[Chorus]
When all you see on your broken back
Is the perfect life that you never had
It's a better ground
When we fall apart
We'll come back again
As a work of art

So lay your head to rest
Don't worry if things never come around
Cause they have somehow
In everything you are

It's too late
When we've already been torn in two
Today
These are the scars that remind you

[Chorus]

If you've ever missed your attempts to fly
Remember this, well, at least you tried
Oh oh
You only did what you could
Oh oh oh
Maybe this is not your fault
Remember you still haven't lost it all
Oh oh
If what is left is your heart

I think you should know
You're a work of art

I think you should know
You're a work of art
When the tide rolled in
You did not lose your heart
I think you should know
You're a work of art

[Chorus]

I think you should know
You're a work of art
I think you should know
You're a work of art
When those walls caved in
You're a work of art

You're a work of art
You're a work of art
I think you should know
You're a work of art
I think you....

When the tide rolled in
You never lost your heart
You're a work of art
