

D I "Better Than Expected"

Visit "Better Than Expected" on MotoLyrics.com

it was a hot summer night their eyes met the moon was full he whispered in her ear she blushed and then ted pulled out the knife tracy was a girl she's just like any other girl life was such a drag and she had all the candles burning friends of hers would say she was the model of complexion by making her connection, put her in high places she had a picture inside of her mind runnin' from herself how many more times for her it must be tough to make a decision she was brand new she didn't know what to do comin' home from work she made a left and went out drinkin' thinkin' there was nothin' in a harmless conversation teddy was a friend they went to high school perfect strangers she didn't see the danger in the wheels he was spinnin' teddy had a picture in front of his mind if he had his way it'll be her last time time after time had to make a decision she was brand new, she didn't have a clue she had to have her way she had to cross the line she went a bit too far she was brand new, she didn't have a clue windin' up dead, that's hangin' out with ted teddy had a pretty face that everbody in the place knew he was an animal but only she could reach him they found her not too far from there dead in raised up underware goin' out with teddy was better than expected she had a in front of her mind runnin' from herself for the last time little girl who made the wrong decision she had to have her way, what a price to pay

Visit D I page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.