Feel the bass, talk to 'em
It's the Dirty Money, motherfuckers, it's the Dirty
Money, motherfuckers
It's the Dirty Money, motherfuckers, it's the Dirty
Money, motherfuckers
Somebody feel me

Lookin' for someone to love me
(Rollin')
Now, now, now, I'm lookin' for someone to love me, yeah

My drama, my karma
My love, my life, dear mama
The wars I've fought, scars that I've garnered
The hustle, I got that honest from my father

Mix me with violence, blend me with peace
Combine me with hate and I can't face defeat
I did it all in a week
Still incomplete as I stand on my feet

It take a lot to still dance to the beat
Skin more cold and callous than concrete
I love swimmin' but there's just one skeet
In a rich man's cheap hotel with bed sheets

Uh-huh, you know what I'm lookin' for

Lookin' for someone to love me
(Rollin')
Now, now, now, I'm lookin' for someone to love me,
yeah

When you ain't got dough, you scratch and you crawl
And your state of mind ain't I want somethin', I want it all
Look at the sky, wonder when it's gon' fall
Cry in the rain so the pain is stalled

It's too dark, my world is in gloom
Chest cold, my soul howls at the moon

My mind spins, my sins crowd the room
My heart don't skip it just beats out of tune

I can't even hold down food, I'm so rude Bad attitude, what point I got to prove?
Sometimes to win somethin', you gotta lose
Love ain't dead, my life is just bruised, talk to 'em

Lookin' for someone to love me
(Rollin')
Now, now, now, I'm lookin' for someone to love me,
yeah

Uh, I'm impatient, I'm so vacant
I'm so real with myself, I'm so blatant
I thirst more, I'm far from complacent
Always placin' my heart last, I'm paper chasin'

Left cravin' the warmth of one touch
So what's money if you never had enough?
I'm disgusted, people say I'm not to be trusted
Insomnia driven, my eyes crusted

So come and save my life if you could muster
Up enough strength to show me how to love some Body besides myself, I crave comfort
Stars may align just right for us

Start a new life for us
Build a fortress beyond coffins
Rembrandt, we paint our soul mates portraits Come one, you know just what I'm looking for

Lookin' for someone to love me
(Rollin')
Now, now, now, I'm lookin' for someone to love me,
yeah

Everybody needs somebody's lovin'
Feel me, yeah
Feel the bass
Come on
