Two women walked down a lonely street
Ruth and Naomi share a tragedy
Both of them lost their husbands to war
So they packed up, picked up, and headed off to warn
Family in the city of Bethlehem
You see Naomi had a brother there and decided to send
Ruth back to her own land far, far away
Ruth loved God, God called her and told her to stay
She said

I will go where you will go hey
Your God will be my guide
I will go where you will go hey
Your God will be my guide

The strangest thing about it, Ruth was not a Jew
Far away from her loved ones now what would you do?
She could've stayed home and bowed down to the false gods of the land
But she loved God, served Him, and was led by His hand
She said
