He's not you
But I guess he'll do

Did you hear tonight to treat me right?
Then I would never call him over (I would never call him)
Did you come around when I was down?
You know I'd never use his shoulder (I should, I will be)

Wish I was that strong
So I'd leave you alone

When you're good you're bad
When you're bad you're good
And when you're great you're amazing

He almost takes it home
He's almost everything I want

Even though he tries to keep me satisfied
That's why in the end I miss him

So I'll be curving my addiction with a substitute
You know he almost looks like you
You know he almost talks like you
And walks like you

I'm curving my addiction with a substitute
You know he almost moves like you
He almost gets me off like you
So now he'll do

He's like a gentle breeze, caressing me
With love, but you're not everything

It's kinda bad to cheat
But I just need some affection to believe in

I wish I was strong
So I can leave you alone

When you couldn't decide

It's like you're reading my mind
And I don't know how to drop you

He's almost everything I want
I forget a while
He always gets on fire
And I got lights I could light you

So I'll be curving my addiction with a substitute
You know he almost looks like you (like you)
You know he almost talks like you
And walks like you

I'm curving my addiction with a substitute
You know he almost moves like you (like you)
He almost gets me off like you (like you)
So now he'll do

Why can't he be more like you?
Baby, why can't he be more like you?
Do all those things that you do
Why can't he do the things you do to me?

Why can't he be more like you?
Be more like you, baby
Just like you
Just like you

The way he looks
The way he talks
The way he moves
The way he walks

Why can't he be Enough for me

So I'll be curving my addiction with a substitute
You know he almost looks like you (like you)
You know he almost talks like you
And walks like you

I'm curving my addiction with a substitute
You know he almost moves like you (like you)
He almost gets me off like you (just like you)
So now he'll do
