

M. Ward

"O'Brien/O'Brien's Nocturne"

Visit "O'Brien/O'Brien's Nocturne" on MotoLyrics.com

Well we talked about old times like a couple of old guys
And took a little walk to the old baseball diamond
And along came O'Brien with a guitar in his hand
Met us on the field with impeccable timing

He said "I got a new song to show ya
"Though it prob'ly ain't gonna blow your mind"
And the thing about O'Brien was
He could always make a string buzz like it was 1989
And I remembered that old car and that old girlfriend
of mine

It was a cracked wooden thing, he said, "Wanna talk about old strings?
"It's been 10, 12 years since I last changed mine"
And it said, Sears down the neck had a little blood stain on the 2nd fret
But you know it still keeps impeccable time

And he said "I got a brand new song to show ya
"Though it prob'ly ain't gonna blow your mind"
And the thing about O'Brien was
He could always make that string buzz like it was still 1989
And I remembered that old car and that old girlfriend
of mine

Visit M. Ward page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.