ANGRY MIDDLE AGED MAN

Â© Electric Babylon Music Author: M.M.

Sometimes IÂ'd just like to die, sometimes IÂ'd just like to live, sometimes.

Caught the bullet between my teeth, canÂ't believe that I have lived to be so meek, I do the impossible everyday, I wana know what IÂ'm worth so I give myself away, IÂ'm so sick of living out this death, another hopeless sigh takes away my breath, I do the job of making money for the suit, work my ass off just to piss inside my boot. Sometimes IÂ'd just like to live.

My wife and family mean the world to me, but sometimes I just want to set myself free, every man out there knows just what I mean, thereÂ's something just too mechanized about the whole damn scene, a life based on some economic mirage, a good nest egg and a two car garage, IÂ'm a loving man but I often feel so full of hate, at the mercy of a merciless world and a bottomless fate.

Sometimes IÂ'd just like to live.

I saw this little blond outside Burger King, she seemed to ignore my wedding ring, not the kind of girl that makes your dreams come true but hey, IÂ'm bet she could make a few bad ones go away, so I drove her around in circles for a while, and then we parked and did the miracle mile.

The world didnÂ't come to pieces in fact it seemed more tightly bound, our answers may be fiat but the world is relentlessly round, so with more to do than suicide could ever undo, you just learn to live with the same old fact of nothing new.
