PSYCH ME

Â© Electric Babylon Music Author: M.M.

Glad to be your ego's punching bag, you must know me better than god knows disappointment, I don't mean to laugh at you but your like a well planned gag, and everything you said seemed so unimportant, and you thought you knew what I think I am, but I think your thoughts aren't worth a damn, were you an expert on my motivation, could you simplify my complication.

Just hang me guilty of your crime, and you can comfort the victim and feel like a hero, sling a handful of your moral grime, ten hypocrites minus truth equals zero, and you loved your love so full of hate, you think so small to make me great, but your more guilty of what you psyched me,

you'll never see the forest cant get past your own tree.

Go ahead doctor law and dissect my feelings, is it easier to know me than to guess yourself, you taught your brain-waves to play your heartstrings, and your disease is the cure of my health, I know how you felt it I know how you thought it, there was a bargain up for sale and you just bought it, but it's so easy to believe and so hard to know, I'm anybody's best friend and anybody's John Doe.
