SIMPLEMINDED COMPLICATION

Â© Electric Babylon Music Author: M.M.

The world's in color I'm in black and white, give me the stars you can have the night, I feel like a fish swimming in the fishbowl of my mind, just another man in the trap of mankind, so let it come down hard and let it come down quick, let my soul be the window let my heart be the brick.

Simpleminded complication, throw that dog a bone,
this case don't need

investigation, just leave me alone, never seen such tight provoking action,

and I still cant figure out the attraction.

Romantic heartbeat philosophers tongue, you've got to be old to know how to act young, we disagree with that we agree with this, when all we really want is just one more kiss, who lost who won let's figure out the score, you don't want nothing but you'll settle for more.

Simpleminded complication, throw that dog a bone,

tight provoking action,

and I still cant figure out the attraction.

The world's on fire should we just watch it burn, this lesson cost more than we were ready to learn, I'm at home call me if you need me, but I'm not a follower so don't try and lead me, makes you wish for days of a simpler light, when I was in color and the world was in black and white.

Complicated simple mindness, it's easier done then said, a simple act of human kindness, let your heart control your head, if you fight a war ipso facto you lose, peace is an offer you cant refuse.
