THAT GUN IS ALWAYS LOADED

Â© Electric Babylon Music Author: M.M.

Of all the unwritten laws and unspoken liberties, there has to be a place where the silence is screaming, the facade is the truth trying to tear it down is madness, and if fates as blind as justice than why bother
dreaming.

That gun is always loaded, don't believe what they tell you, don't believe what you tell you, a hairs breadth of the trigger
and destiny's
wearing a new wound.

The big band the extinction of the dinosaurs, a mans life and the universe of his mind, his bones just take up space and his mind just soaks up time, he means a lot to himself though not much to humankind.

That gun is always loaded, don't believe what they tell
you, don't
and destiny's
wearing a new wound.

It means all you need to know about nothing, it means the moon is just in orbit not in flight, it mens if you don't care you better really mean it, it means the law of the jungle is that might makes right.
and destiny's
wearing a new wound.

That gun is always loaded, and it's pointed straight at you.
