WALKING IN THE RAIN

Â© Electric Babylon Music Author: M.M.

Looking out across the fields of death's victory, I look over my shoulder

towards the morning of life's day, the port of entry into foreign lands is guarded by the fear of weather, the audience can't

lead role as they watch this dream play.

Walking in the rain, walking in the rain, walking in the rain.

Time is the wrong definition for what was, and when is the wrong

question for what is to be, a flower with deep root in earth is aching for the touch of the sun, she walked up to me like a spirit held out the palm of her hand and in it was a key.

rain.

A brave warrior stands vigil over the castle of his shame, he says a man is only worth what he's willing to give up and no more, a little boy runs to his mother crying he has cut his finger on the edge of a rainbow, over towards the coast I see a ship dreaming of the shore.

rain.

Emotional impressionism and its context of colors like life's weather is a mystery, it can rain in the cave of your skull without a cloud in the sky,

mind at large moves like a great thunderhead across the endless horizon life's weather pays no heed to death's forecast and all we can do is wonder why.... we're.

Walking in the rain, walking in the rain, walking in the rain.
