Not a lot right now makes sense to me
And I won't go quietly
Not a lot right now makes sense to me
And I won't sit patiently

I'm gonna chase my dreams and catch up to them
I'm gonna find you some how, some way, somewhere, someday

First day of the rest of our lives, I miss you already
The last time I see that look in your eyes, I miss you already
First day of the rest of our lives, I miss you already
The last time I see that look in your eyes, I miss you
already

I don't wanna spend the rest of my life alone
Where's life taking me?
I don't wanna spend the rest of my life alone
Always traveling

I'm gonna chase my dreams and catch up to them
I'm gonna find you somehow, some way, somewhere,

The last time I see that look in your eyes, I miss you
already
The last time I see that look in your eyes, I miss you
already

I wanna love my job, I wanna love my life
But most of all, I wanna fall in love

First day of the rest of our lives, I miss you already
The last time I see that look in your eyes, I miss you
already
First day of the rest of our lives, I miss you already
The last time I see that look in your eyes, I miss you
already

The last time I see that look in your eyes, I miss you
already
First day of the rest of our lives, I miss you already
The last time I see that look in your eyes, I miss you
already
