If we help each other out along the way
Then maybe everything will be okay
Who decides if you'll succeed?
Who decides those things you want and need?

Looking back on all these years
All the smiles and all the tears
I never want those memories to fade
What we have done, what can we do
We search our whole life for the truth
For always and always and always

I know sometimes, well, disagree
But no one here can absolutely see
We're just learning as we go
There's nothing there in this world we just don't know

Looking back on all these years
All the smiles and all the tears
I never want those memories to fade
What we have done, what can we do
We search our whole life for the truth
For always and always and always
