I'm taking off, heading out of this town
Get this plane off the ground, then safely set her down

We had our first fight late last night
I watched her walk right out the door
She said she needed something more

More laughter, more tears
More praises, more cheers
More everything in all the ways you are

I'm taking off; maybe I'll bum a ride
Turn with the tide, spend my nights outside

The chance I had just passed me by
Cause now my girl's begun to cry
She said she needed something more

More laughter, more tears
More praises, more cheers
More kissing in the car, more staring at the stars
More colors outside the line
More undivided time
More everything in all the ways you are
More everything in all the ways you are

More everything in every way
Every second of the day
In every thought that's played out in my mind
You're everything that I've been trying to find
I remember times back in Hollywood
Best friends making music
We were feeling good
The top was always down
And the sun was always shining bright

I remember singing to the radio
On the sunset strip we were driving slow
The top was always down
And the stars were always shining bright

The sun was coming up

When we were laying down
We felt like kings and
We love that town
The sun was coming up
When we were laying low
We felt like kings
We were living our dreams

Everyone was there so we got into the car
Headed out to Vegas
Didn't get very far
The top was always down and
The tire blew a flat that night

We changed the tire then we Turned right around
Picked up a hitcher on our way into town
The top was always down with
The gas pedal on the ground

The sun was coming up
When we were laying down
The sun was coming up
We felt like kings

We'll be on the town tonight

We watched the freaks
Fade away in the day
We watched celebrities
Come out to play
And we knew our way around

The sun was coming up
When we were laying down
We felt like kings and
We love that town
The sun was coming up
When we were laying low
We felt like kings

The city in our eyes the music in our skulls/souls
We love singing loud to the stereo
Left Coast Punk Rawk that's our scene
Rock and Roll
We're living a dream
