"Without You"

I got a confession to make
That my heart would break
To hear you say goodbye

You're my every dream
You're the thread work to my seams
You know that I can't lie, when I say

I can't stop thinking about you
I can't stop thinking about how
My heart's empty without you

I just hate myself
To think of you with someone else
To hear you say goodbye

I love you for who you are
No more, no less
You know that I can't lie, when I say

I can't stop thinking about you
I can't stop thinking about how
My heart's empty without you

My dreams will never come true without you
Will never come true without you
Will never come true without you

My dreams will never come true without you
Will never come true without you
Will never come true without you

What would I do without you
What would I do without you

My dreams will never come true without you
Will never come true without you
Will never come true without you

My dreams will never come true without you
Will never come true without you
Will never come true without you
