You know I'm sorry
Not sorry enough
You know I feel bad
But not bad enough
You know I feel terrible
'Cause that's just what I am
I couldn't tell the truth
Now you don't think that I can

I've been called a hundred things
A thousand different times
But now and forever I will always be
One thing to you and me
That's "unforgiven"
Unforgiven

You say I'm good for nothing
So nothing's good enough for me
We all get what we deserve
Unfortunately
But if I had one wish
That one wish would be
Someday I could raise my face
To eyes that love me

I've been called a hundred things
A thousand different times
But now and forever I will always be
One thing to you and me
That's "unforgiven"
Unforgiven
Unforgiven
