I'm just stuck in between reality and dreams where everything I touch is not what it seems people say the opposite of what they tongue mean they would rather hire maids then have to come clean seeing scenes from the Watchmen, form my format go to sleep as DDot and wake up as Rorschach I forged my own tracks, except I stroll where pavement on sidewalks come out all cracked and all go I through creates more raps They didn't cut Columbus no slack ...so I know, haters Celebrating if my World Fall Flat it's difficult to care if your words caught flack when you barely give a fuck if ya girl calls back it hurts when I treat you like the rest of em, don't it? now we back to Square One like an Exponent my emotions unavailble, I just can't show it and though, I don't lend money, I been a loner a poet blinded by his lies similar to Homer the truth, Under My Nose like Smelling Salt strong as Ammonia,..I get sick from the aroma wish that, bus hit me it and put me into a coma to prevent from this being true, prevent the vehicle from using EZPass on any trip seeing you the Love Lock Down, I ain't gotta key to you
..You gave up wantin to make us work ..now I'm left here trying to erase this hurt that surfaces when you typed in my Facebook Search and I bare a type of pain you can't take to church the type of pain that you'd hate to be, placed on Earth if you only knew what seeing ya face was worth (ugh) so I move on, dive into another, situation, where I'm hung up on tryna find a lover I understand, now you want a place up in my life but its one small problem with, making you my wife
...My Heart Hardin like Tanya Skating on the Ice I told myself, not to make that mistake twice but I'm here again, gamblin, playin with the dice lets hope for a day where I don't care about the risk run and all my bitterness converted into wis-dom um, I can't fuck a fuck broad who is dumb I need a brain or I bounce when the shits done and get stuff my quick, dip, tell the bitch "one"

You want monogamy, I promise you will get none, so if you ever meet 'em tell my father, I am his son I owe it all to him for everything I become My feet numb, so callous from the journey my thoughts out of whack so I act 730 Straight Jacket,.. "Nurse Strap him down to the Gurney" his peers in fear now, he has 'em kinda worried cuz I prove early, being a liar not my M.O.
I wake up inspired like Maguire writin' Memos and thats why these label reps ain't tryna hear my demo
..I endeavor these struggles I juggle being humble with enjoying when my enemies stumble.
thats some of the realest shit I never wrote.. so I dare you to go out and find a better quote..
It's a such a pity they don't notice for my city, I get diagonised with scoleosis Bending Over Backwards but the wack nerds don't appreciate shit, shit they loved me down in Acworth
they came around doubting me so I fled down to Cobb County with this Bounty on my Head they say treasons a reason I'll be found dead cuz you turned on PG,..and spit in their face they gave you a home away from ya birthplace and having traits of a traitor is the worst case..scenario but if I don't spread my wings we'll never know if I truly have what it takes to make better quo Mickey Factz said I'm "slightly nice" so I'll try and prove him right on this Mic Device and fuck it, I won't say might..dog, it's a promise You Octobers Very Own? I'm Adopted By August that means I'm the hottest, I gotta be honest I lost all my novice, verses up in Largo so if you find a sidekick with the lock code sell that mawfucka to any rapper that ya'll know cuz when I rap these thoughts out you hear more Convinction than Blacks in a Texas Courthouse
and I'ma leave on the cleverest note I'm the last to give a fuck and the first to tell you I don't
