Bound up I saw him drowning today
He never look or even question
Is the burden of his free choice death
Cuz he can't see and he can't touch his chains
Well the Bible says to whom that you obey
To this one you become it's slave, child Either of sin leading to death or of obedience leading to righteousness
Do those shackles bring freedom?
Chorus:
The Conquering Lion shall break every chain
The Conquering Lion shall break every chain
The Conquering Lion shall break every chain
Shall break every chain
Another day another time and I will break it then My life, it's my choice, I'll choose how and when
But on the other side a battle cry
A fight for life and a life worth fighting for Triumph's loss if you never take it home
Victory is vain unless you claim your gold
One life to live you've got it one life to give
And when your freedom's in the balance will you stand or fold?
Chorus:
Mind captive can you feel it pressing harder
Freedom born with now stolen by sin
Bound by your disbelief the fear enlarges Conscience dead to what true love is Liberty and justice, surety and fullness
America's dream has not brought much contentment
Equality from within, prosperity and freedom
Is it just a figment of our imagination?
Or are we living free?
