

Dommin "Closure"

Visit "Closure" on MotoLyrics.com

This is closure
Shutting the door to the life that I once knew
To the lies I took for truth; to the life consumed by you

I'm leaving it all behind
I'm clearing you out of my mind
I'm saying goodbye to the life that I once knew

This is closure
Farewell to all that bound me now
When it's over? this is?

I'm walking away from the things that drained my soul
From the things that took control
From the love that left me cold

Now I don't hold any hate
And I don't regret my mistakes
I'm learning to grow from the things that hurt me so

This is closure
Farewell to all that bound me now
When it's over?
This is goodbye
