It all started with the chase
I was running in place always striving and straining and never obtaining what should have been mine from the beginning and I'm always hoping to win you to safely continue in...
Love, Trust
Crushed to dust
and I gave you all that I had
And I still lost

I dread the defeat
Fairytale incomplete
It's so tragic, depressing
Do you love me
I'm still guessing
I've grown tired of the dance
And the death of romance
I am bleeding, I'm dying
And you're hardly trying

Love, Trust
Crushed to Dust
And I gave you everything that I had
And I still lost

Let's make believe that you want me
As much as I want you
Let's make believe

Yeah I still lost x2

I've lost you now I don't intend to Fight a war I'll never win

Yeah I still lost
