A dozen city lights
it's bitter cold tonight I'll see all you've got and you'll see mine just watch your own life and pass it by I'm not satisfied
just complicated
So go and we'll jet this place together it's what you want so tell me what we've got now no more time to mess around now contemplating of our time yeah If forever stays this warm then theres no harm
in our future
so whats our future
it's written out in sand Just take my hand
we'll drive away
Let's go somewhere far now We'll dissipate our fears and make them thoughts of hope You're saying that I'm blind but she doesn't know I'll never leave her side A lover she's called so I'll wait forever but shes already mine my heart
search and rescue
but I found you
But hey wonderful
Isn't she beautiful?
Goodnight
