Abigail can you feel my heart in the palm of your hand and do you understand why I can't stay Abigail an evil wind is blowing through the land and they need every man to drive it away
When I come home if I come home you'll be a grown woman
When I come home if I come home don't be alone, Abigail, belle of Kilronan Abigail 's gonna be the beauty of County Galway and she will live always in a world of love Abigail I'm off to the war but you can be sure
I will know you're what I'm fighting for...
