Drive on, driver
There's no one home
You've waited hours
she didn't come
It's such
A pretty little end
But it
Doesn't mean anything
Drive on

Drive on driver
Don't you cry
I gave her
Everything money could buy
You always said that girl
Deserved
The whole wide world
Drive on

And take me to the airport
I need to be Extremely far away
so I can forget about her
I might forget
About her someday

Drive on, Randy
It's all gone wrong
Have some brandy
Sing me a song
Something soft and low
Can we please just go?

Drive on
