"For We Are The King Of The Boudoir"

Should time allow us to describe our prowess
it would be quite hard to overrate, for we are the king of the boudoir old thing and the king doesn't like to wait.
One tryst with me and you'll be spinning like a gyroscope.
One tryst with me and you'll be Pope.
Should modesty allow us to describe our prowesslessnesslessness
'twould be hard to overstate,
for we are the king of the boudoir it's true and the king
doesn't like to wait.
One kiss from me and you'll be overjoyed and
overawed.
One kiss from me and you'll see God.
For we are the king of the boudoir we are and the king
doesn't like to wait.
