Time provides the rope
But love will tie the slipknot and I will be the chair you kick away You don't even like anything you like or the people you know and all of your reasons to stay alive died

ChorusI dedicate this song to you for all the desperate things you made me do I'd like to beat you black and blue for all the agony you have put me through.

Front seat
stained with love
A back seat full of bibles purloined from the drawers of lost motelsT hey say when you're older you'll understand you know it's a lie 'cause you've got a twisted and mangled heart

Chorus

Down route 66 you pilfered love and green stamps W.C. Fields with Mae West in your eyes They say every clock's a blunt instrument crushing the skull But you've got a vice to rest your head in.
