Moonlight and the stars above
This shallow pond is shining like the sun
The wind blows softly through your hair
We've got pills to help the alcohol to heal

So many lost words and lonely sounds
The deafening silence when you're not around
I can't feel a thing but thank god I
Still have pills to the help the alcohol to heal

A call ain't a call if none answers
I can't find comfort in the topless dancers
So give me a sign
I'll choke out my last line

Times flies by when when you're growing apart
A few angry tears and a change of heart
I empty my glass and put up my shield
With pills to help the alcohol to heal
