I know I said we'd never part
I remember that time of year
Maybe I won't sound the same
But I'll be fine if no one
Mentions her name

I need a song just like before
That one just don't cut it anymore
I'm impressed now it's the end
I'll let all the sad songs roll back in
I'll be be fine if no one
Mentions her name anymore

Except for lying
Alone with the earth all
Alone for a while
I'll feel like drivin' just away in the morning
Cause I been seeing myself for the first time

But I'll be fine if no one
Mentions her name

Think of how it was that night
And how you feel tonight
I'll be fine
