girl you told me that there was no other (no other) now your telling me that you just wanna let me go i cannot go on like this is it me girl, i seriously gotta know boy you cant help me feel like this im sorry but my love for you is falling apart i cant be with someone that i dont even love that i dont even trust to be by my side is it me, is it you who turns out to be the fool could it be all along that your not the one for me it is me, it is you we don't know what to do with our love when hers is fading away i cant believe i thought you were the one (were the one) spending all my time saying that you were myne wish i could take it so that you wont break it my promises mean every little thing im sorry that i cant force myself you just gotta tell yourself that you can do it alone i wish i could only help you but it would make it worse i know you want me to go

look at me and tell me that you dont love me i can try if thats all you need is it you, is it me

with our love when hers is fading
