Verse 1:

change,
I began with a brand new start to the feel of my broken heart
I lost so many different people blame, i point my finger at the space and time 'cause you was always on my mind you were the only that made me fall I hate, the way you look right back at me and flash back the memories how does this make us equal?
I'm ashamed,
i bow my head down when our eyes meet cause baby you destroyed my sanity i can not believe just what you did to me

Pre-Chorus:

I can't let it take over my mind i gotta let you go cause you ain't worth the fight

Chorus:

I'm letting it go no looking back coz baby you're the past I'll find somebody that lasts longer theres no more pictures on my wall don't want them anymore replace them with a love that's stronger

Verse 2:

pain,
I'm all about finding the cure, right about now I'm not sure where i should keep on searching strange, how you forget me just like that, all we've been through, it don't mean jack

I'm young so I'll keep on learning my brain, hurts and is feeling way to small, I can not keep on holding on i feel like it is burning erase, i wanna try and remove it all my mistakes deserve some hope i still can not believe just what you did to me (oh)

(Pre-Chorus & Chorus)

Bridge: (Rap)
raise your hand if you miss somebody but you know that you can not trust nobody they say they are sorry but that ain't the truth baby you know the deal you can only trust you but at the same time you be crying wishing that they'd come around but then again sometime a better person will be found the past is the past let the world take it's course friends can change but you will find even more
