Chorus:

If your dream is near impossible then make yourself believe that your un-stoppable i'm telling you
don't be afraid
don't hesitate
you gotta get into the spirit so just just reach for the stars if you know you'll get far baby you can win it
you will kill it
cause the sky ain't even the limit no

Verse 1:

who's stopping you?
well baby they ain't got no taste it's time to prove tick tock you got no time to waste now put the smile on your face as you make the haters frown once they realise
there was no point in putting you down don't tell me that you'll give up I wanna see you shine
be the brightest star
shining up in the sky

and prove them wrong
tell em all
shove the success in their face after all it is you who is gonna do great

Bridge:

it's not too long till you will finally see it's not too long till you can accomplish your dream just stay strong, if you fall it don't mean that your weak just put put your head up high and say these words to speak baby
I am
heading for top and

never gonna stop when I haven't even finished yeah the sky sky ain't even the limit

Outro:
it ain't the limit
you will win it
if you just believe
