“Climbing the Ladder”

A language denied and buried alive
And if facts were derived there fictitious
Whoever’s holding the key is concealing it

As beings
We’re human We’re people
Our lives are justified through death
The passage is open we’re welcome
We’ll soon inherit the soil

They say we’re climbing the ladder
Climbing the ladder
Yet somehow we remain descending
Climbing the ladder
Yes
Climbing the ladder
Yet somehow we remain descending

Since the birth
We’ve been walking to and from
To just become
What we once were Recognize with every blessing there’s a curse not far behind

Decisions decide the path we choose
Eluding the past the devil laughs
And if facts were derived there fictitious
Whoever is holding the key is concealing

Foreseeing the future
Receiving
These thoughts are now comprehensible
Decipher
Distinctly remember
Retrace, recall all the attributes

That say we’re climbing the ladder

Climbing the ladder
Yet somehow we remain descending
Climbing the ladder
Yes
Climbing the ladder
Yet somehow we remain descending

Since the birth
We've been walking to and from
To just become
What we once were
behind
