“Lakeeffect I.”

Hold onto islands of thought
That coexist alongside with the hands of faith
Limitless fractals of colors and basic shapes
Watch as they unravel
Exposing patterns that lie beneath and I can't wait
For you to devour my peaceful state
It's my state...
Before too long
Hold onto islands
Why can't you hold onto islands of...?
Well most can't remove the veil that's blinding their every step.

And the day appeared as is
Nothing peculiar did interest me it came unexpectedly
Watched it all unravel and open within
And again and again and again
Praise the moment you try
And you are in
Nothing peculiar did interest me it came unexpectedly
Watched it all unravel and open within
And again and again and again

Should I move and in what direction?

In this lakeeffect
Endless lakeeffect
