"Unconscious"

Something caught my attention
Something at the corner of my (eye)
It was something that did not seem clear to me
Something completely different
And what it said and what it was
Was two completely different things too

Maybe I should just remain unconscious
Oh maybe
Maybe I should just relax and get high

Iâ'm in the hallway awaiting (your) cue
Despite our efforts
Despite your condescending eyes
In time we will
Oh but maybe your more patient
And after all

Maybe I should just remainÂ....
Maybe I should
Maybe I should

While Iâ'm remaining unconscious
You can follow suit
Or remain conscious
Because I will not oblige

Grinding my teeth to the seconds of the (clock)
