A Bear is Moving (sinclair)

Waking up and reaching out, finding no-one there
I walk around in settled panic, No, not despair
I always knew this was coming
Shouting out to save my head
I know it's hopeless anyway, Ooh I'm scared,
Once again I turn my back, I close my eyes,
I hide the facts, Oh once again,
Where is it I am going, I don't know where.
My wildest dreams are shouting, I don't know where.

On the skyline clouds are moving,
Bright and long and low.
In the field a bear is moving, Quiet and slow.
Man always knew this was coming
Shouting out to save my head
We know it's hopeless anyway, Ooh I'm scared,
Once again we turn our backs, we close our eyes,
We hide the facts, Oh once again,
Where is it we are going, I don't know where.
My wildest dreams are shouting, I don't know where.
