Store 2010 (sinclair, verity)

It was on a cold and rainy day, my heart stood still Does it have to be this way? I feel so ill
It could have been me you saw today,
roaming 'round your store.
It could have been me you saw today,
I guess you ought to know.
Around the corner, around the bend, is just my brain
All the time I do pretend, I'm not insane.
It could have been me you saw today,
roaming 'round your store.
It could have been me you saw today,
I guess you ought to know.
